Announcement of dates for Art Collaboration Kyoto 2022

The second edition of Art Collaboration Kyoto, Japan's largest international art fair dedicated to contemporary art, will be held in November of 2022

The first edition of Art Collaboration Kyoto (ACK), Japan's largest international art fair specializing in contemporary art, was held with great success in 2021 on the theme of "contemporary art and collaboration." The second edition will be held under a new organizational structure from Friday, November 18 to Sunday, November 20, 2022.

Details of the new structure for ACK will be announced from May onwards, including the appointment of a new director to take the reins from Takahiro Kaneshima, who has been involved in ACK as co-director since its inception. Please look forward to the next edition of ACK.
